

Awards of Grants/Contracts to Eligible Training Providers

The Humboldt County Workforce Development Board has the following providers on the Eligible Training Provider List (ETPL):

- ❖ College of the Redwoods
- ❖ Humboldt State University

The statewide ETPL is accessible via the CalJOBSSM website on each working day of the year (excluding minimal periods required for system maintenance). The ETPL is available at www.caljobs.ca.gov under "Education Services."

What is the Eligible Training Provider List (ETPL)?

The Eligible Training Provider List \(ETPL\) is a publicly available state-wide list of training providers whose programs have demonstrated qualifications necessary to receive WIOA worker training funds. Most importantly, the ETPL empowers individuals to select training that best suits their individual career objectives.

How Does it Work?

With the assistance of America's Job Center of California staff, participants determined eligible to receive training assistance select ETPL programs on the basis of individual employment planning and labor market demand.

How Do Training Providers Apply?

If you are a provider and are interested in being listed on the ETPL, please please complete:

- WIOA ETPL Provider Application
- WIOA ETPL Program Application (Required for each course that you would like to have listed on the ETPL)

If you have any questions, please contact the Humboldt County Workforce Development Board Administration at 707-445-7745 or email altans@co.humboldt.ca.us.
